Stewardship Reflection

August 27, 2023
21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid?" - ROMANS 11:35

St. Paul reminds us of a central fact of stewardship. We cannot give God anything - He already owns it all. God made everything, including us. Since we are made in His image, we too, are called to be generous. How we use our God-given gifts becomes our gift back to Him. Gratitude for all we have been given opens our hearts to joyful generosity! And, through our generosity, we just may be the answer to someone else's prayer.

Parish Information and Updates

SUNDAY OFFERTORY after August 1: On August 1 we became a new parish with the temporary name of "Most Holy Trinity, Saint Nicholas, and Saints Teresa and Bridget." The bank accounts, however, will not be merged until later in the year. PLEASE CONTINUE to make your offertory checks out to your current parochial campus. Use the envelopes you normally use, and if you use online giving, continue as usual. You will be notified when it is time to change how you give, but no changes to the Sunday offertory will occur immediately. It will take several months for those changes to take effect. Thank you for your flexibility.

Volunteer Drivers Needed!

The St Louis Quarantine delivery group is having a problem getting drivers to deliver our food to the homebound in this area.

We need help on Mondays between 9-12noon, delivering food from our St Nicholas Food Pantry to homebound clients within the St Louis, city limits. If you are willing to share 2 hours of your time, between 9:00am & Noon, on a Monday, we would love to hear from you.

Please contact Doris at: 517-673-6003.

Thanks

Meeting Room Reservations

Everyone's meeting is important and has a purpose especially as we enact the "All things new", protocols. With all the campus spaces we have at our hands it is vital that we do not assume that a space will be open. Please make an effort to contact the necessary persons at each campus so we can schedule the use of these meeting spaces without overlap.

Archdiocesan Archives

If you have any items of historic interest (documents, T-shirts, programs, or photos), please bring them to Mass. They will be placed in the Archdiocesan archives and available for research and history projects. We have a rich a history as a church and this will enable generations in the future to see the beauty and knowledge of what was once our original church homes.

Let's Keep the Parish Informed

The Sunday church bulletin is here to provide information on

- Ministry Meetings
- Parish Special Events
- Words of wisdom
- Parish Points of Interest
- Archdiocesan Information and more.

All entries are subject to approval and must reach the parish office by Tuesday afternoon to be a part of the upcoming weekly bulletin.

Hospitals, Nursing Homes, Prayer Requests and our Homebound:

Visitation of the Sick:

We would like to keep this list up to date. Please send the names of those you would like to published in our bulletin by Tuesday, of any week. Email sjanice@mhtslt.org or valdowdy@stsb.org or call the Parish office.

LET LOVE WIN

Today Jesus is standing in front of the huge Rock in Caesarea Philippi which was often used as a place of pagan worship. In that very spot Jesus gives Simon his new name: "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it." Perhaps we have imagined Peter on the other side of the gates of Heaven, with a key, making sure no one from hell can get in; the church defending itself against the gates of the netherworld.

Bishop Robert Baron, through his "Word on Fire" ministry helped me to see this scene in a completely new way. We are not defending heaven against hell; we are loving with all the power of God and the heavenly host; we are marching all the way into the pain of hell, even unto death itself to declare our victory over sin and death, to gather all our brothers and sisters, all our ancestors, to free them from the grip of fear and welcome them into the heavenly kingdom. Heaven's gates are open wide, and they will remain open until all God's children and all of creation are in. The gates of hell are powerless to stop us because our victory is won by the blood of Christ poured out on the cross.

My first soccer coach, Mike Zahoran, 55 years ago, taught us that the best defense is a good offense. We are defending against hell flooding it with the abundance of God's love and mercy that flows through us, within us and all around us. God's mercy is in our bones and in our blood. We have nothing to fear. Indeed, we are the body of the crucified and risen Christ; the gates of hell will never prevail against us.

St. Nicholas, pray for us; St. Teresa of Avila, pray for us; St. Bridget of Erin, pray for us. May the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be glorified in us.

Fr Mitch Doyen

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, UNITY MASS 9:30 St. Nicholas.

Father Mitch will be installed as the pastor of our new parish by the Episcopal Vicar of the Northern Vicariate, Father Scott Jones. What a joyous celebration! We thank God for Father's Mitch faith-filled life and dedicated service. May the Holy Spirit sustain and strengthen him in his service to our new parish.
